Organizers

European Association of Lawyers (AEA-EAL)

The Association was established in 1986 by former members of the International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA), who decided there a need to strengthen links between members, to share experience in professional matters in cross-border field as well as to broaden knowledge of European law. We pay particular attention to the practical aspects of legal practice by providing training in such areas as law firm management, legal marketing, management of contacts and the acquiring of new clients. For the past number of years, we've organized a summer university course in European business law at the College of Europe and have furnished advices and draft texts to the EU Commission on EU legal proceedings. AEA-EAL has members from various jurisdictions in Europe and outside Europe including Argentina, Austria, Belgium, China, Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Georgia, Germany, Italy, Ireland, Kazakhstan, Poland, Spain, Switzerland, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and the United States. Growing the network of lawyers helps our members develop professional and social contacts and to expand their activities. Our statutes, which were amended recently, allow lawyers from all continents and jurisdictions, share the same fundamental values of the profession including independence, self-governance and protecting professional secrecy. We welcome you to visit our website www.aea-eal.eu and on our Facebook fb.com/europeanassociationoflawyers.
